

Opportunities

Wednesday, 02 July 2008

Universitas Islam Indonesia is committed in perfecting the integration of Islamic values in education, research, community development, and Islamic endeavors. Its mission is to upholding Islamic teachings and values through development and dissemination of knowledge, technology, culture, and arts to produce individuals with leadership skills, knowledgeable, professional, independent, and morally and ethically responsible. Within this value, the University committed to the excellency of quality assurance.

The University has a strong policy to develop the infrastructure and facilities to enhance the information technology-based services. The academic, administrative and management service has systematically been interconnected through information technology. The university provides several international programs as one of commitments to give excellent service to the prospective students.

Â Study Programmes

- Civil Engineering (Earthquake Engineering)
- Islamic Economics (Islamic Thought, Islamic Economics, Islamic Law)
- Law (Law and Islamic Law)
- Management and Economics (Indonesian Business Practices and Islamic Business Practices Islamic Economics)
- Medicine (Family Medicine, Islamic Medicine)